CALL TO WORSHIP AND OPENING PRAYER:

Leader: Father of Your children and Lord of Your Church, grant us Your people God-wrought anguish over the lost and erring and over injustice and oppression, so that we may seek to be vehicles through which faith and freedom, justification and justice are known and experienced. Bless us to cling to the foolishness of the cross to such an extent that we believe that You can make a difference through those as simple as us.

People: Amen.

INVOCATION:

Leader: As the Church we worship and serve the God whose name we bear:

People: God the Father,

Leader: Who sent His Son to be our Savior and Brother and Friend.

People: God the Son,

Leader: Who gave Himself for us on the cross, rose from the grave, ascended into heaven and lives within us.

People: God the Holy Spirit,

Leader: Who gave birth to the church and through baptism has brought us into a living faith.

People: Amen.

CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS:

Leader: Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly dove, with light and comfort from above.

People: Come, be our guardian and our guide;
in every thought and step preside.

Leader: Lead us to Christ, the Holy One;

People: Forgive our sins, all said and done.

Leader: The light of truth to us display and make us know and choose The way;

People: Plant holy fear within each heart,
that we from God, may not depart.
Guide us in faith to hear Christ's Word and live each day by Your fire stirred.

Leader: Then take us home at last to heaven God's eternal gift to His own given.

SONG OF PRAISE: "When In Our Music God Is Glorified?" LSB 796

1 When in our mu - sic God is glo - ri - fied
3 So has the Church, in lit - ur - gy and song,
5 Let ev - 'ry in - stru - ment be tuned for praise!

And ad - o - ra - tion leaves no room for pride,
In faith and love, through cen - tu - ries of wrong,
Let all re - joice who have a voice to raise!

It is as though the whole cre - a - tion cried:
Borne wit - ness to the truth in ev - 'ry tongue:
And may God give us faith to sing al - ways:

Al - le - lu - ia!
Al - le - lu - ia!
Al - le - lu - ia!

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING: Genesis 11:1-9

The whole world had one language with a common vocabulary. As people moved toward the east, they found a plain in Shinar [Babylonia] and settled there.

They said to one another, “Let’s make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” They used bricks as stones and tar as mortar.

Then they said, “Let’s build a city for ourselves and a tower with its top in the sky. Let’s make a name for ourselves so that we won’t become scattered all over the face of the earth.”

The LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the descendants of Adam were building. The LORD said, “They are one people with one language. This is only the beginning of what they will do! Now nothing they plan to do will be too difficult for them. Let us go down there and mix up their language so that they won’t understand each other.”

So the LORD scattered them all over the face of the earth, and they stopped building the city. This is why it was named Babel, because there the LORD turned the language of the whole earth into babble. From that place the LORD scattered them all over the face of the earth. – GW ®

CHILDREN’S MESSAGE

THE ACCOUNT OF THE FIRST PENTECOST: Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. Utterly amazed, they asked: “Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!” Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, “What does this mean?”

Some, however, made fun of them and said, “They have had too much wine.”

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: “Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It’s only nine in the morning! No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

“In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.

Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.

I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke.

The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.

And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.’ – NIV®

MINISTRY OF MUSIC: “Holy Spirit, Light Divine” Bethany Choir
 ~ Jeffrey Blersch

THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 14:23-31

Jesus answered him, “Those who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will go to them and make our home with them. A person who doesn’t love me doesn’t do what I say. I don’t make up what you hear me say. What I say comes from the Father who sent me.

“I have told you this while I’m still with you. However, the helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything. He will remind you of everything that I have ever told you.

“I’m leaving you peace. I’m giving you my peace. I don’t give you the kind of peace that the world gives. So don’t be troubled or cowardly. You heard me tell you, ‘I’m going away, but I’m coming back to you.’ If you loved me, you would be glad that I’m going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I am.

“I’m telling you this now before it happens. When it does happen, you will believe. The ruler of this world has no power over me. But he’s coming, so I won’t talk with you much longer. However, I want the world to know that I love the Father and that I am doing exactly what the Father has commanded me to do. Get up! We have to leave.” – GW ®

CONFESSION OF FAITH: Third Article of the Apostles' Creed & Meaning according to Luther's Small Catechism

ALL: I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Leader: What does this mean?

ALL: I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith. In the same way He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith. In this Christian Church He daily and richly forgives all my sins and the sins of all believers. On the Last Day he will raise me and all the dead, and give eternal life to me and all believers in Christ. This is most certainly true.

by whom the whole body of the church is led and held together:

People: Have mercy on us.

Leader: For the early disciples who were sent forth by Christ to proclaim the coming Kingdom:

People: We praise You, O God.

Leader: For the apostles, who in obedience to His Word carried the Gospel through the empire and to the world beyond:

People: We praise You, O God.

Leader: For those who in the ages of darkness kept alive the light and who, while others slept, were faithful to their Lord's command.

People: We praise You, O God.

Leader: For all who in our day division and partisanship have proclaimed and lived out the unity that is found in Jesus.

People: We praise You, O God.

Leader: For the innumerable company who now praise Your name out of every ethnic group and nation and tongue:

People: We praise You, O God.

Leader: That the day would come when the Gospel has been preached to all nations and the whole world has been filled with the knowledge of Your name and the grace of the same:

People: Hear us, we implore You, O Lord. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER:

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.
Amen.

+ Holy Communion +

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Bethany in the joyful confession that our Lord gives us His very Body and Blood for the forgiveness of sins in this sacrament. God intends this gift for His children who recognize their sin, trust in Christ as their Savior, desire to live for Him alone and join in this joyful confession.

To help you prepare for communion we invite you to take a few moments of quiet prayer. For aid there are prayers on the front page of the hymnal for both before and after the reception of communion. Or simply pray, Dear Lord Jesus, at Your gracious invitation You invite me to come to You, to eat and drink Your holy body and blood as You Yourself have promised to give in this sacrament of Your altar. Forgive me of my sin, through this Your meal of Forgiveness. Let me experience the fullness of Your love, through this Your meal of love. Strengthen my faith, through this meal of Yours that calls for and bestows faith. Empower me to live for You, through this Your meal that promises life everlasting and equips me for daily living as one who has received You and Your gifts.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

For those communing, who so desire, the center cups in each tray are alcohol free.

The wafers next to the Christ candle side are gluten free;

for those with dietary restrictions, please take a gluten free wafer.

For those wishing to use a self-contained communion chalice, let an usher know.

In our 9:30 a.m. service we will practice the Easter tradition of continuous communion. We will not kneel at the altar, rather we will join the procession of saints and come forward and remain standing as we receive the bread and wine. After receiving the elements, you are invited to return to your seat and continue in meditation, prayer and song.
