Philippians 3:12-21

Paul is talking about how he is working for other people to come to know Jesus and go to heaven. Paul's ultimate goal is for himself to go to heaven. He has already told us that and he is working really hard for others to go to heaven

What is something you have worked really hard for?
How can you "work" so that others can go to heaven?
Share about a time where you won something?
How did you feel?

(Kids, in case you don't know, you mommy and daddy are getting ready to vote for a president)

How does it make you feel in this political season to know that your primary citizenship is in heaven?
