Matthew 25:14-30

In this parable, Jesus tells us what the Father is like. He is one who gives extravagant gifts and who welcomes his children into a great party. In this parable Jesus also reminds us that God is serious about the things he has given to us.

- What gifts & talents has God given you?
- How can you use those talents to help others know more about Jesus?
- What are you looking forward to when you go to heaven?
