John 1:6-8

In Advent we remember that the light of the world came to earth and is coming again. In this season daylight is short but God's patience is long. The light of the world will come and we, like John, can share with others the truth of the light of Christ.

- Are you afraid of the dark? What makes you scared?
- What makes you feel better when you are in the darkness?
- How does light make you happy and want to rejoice?
