Exodus 20:1-17

Today's Old Testament reading is perhaps the most well known covenant in Scripture. Often times we miss the promise part. God begins this covenant with a word of grace, The 10 Commandments, also known as "The 10 Words" begin with a promise fulfilled, "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of slavery in Egypt." The rest of the "words" flow from this word of grace.

-How does this change your idea of the 10 Commandments?
-Where else do you see God acting in grace?
