Jeremiah 31:31-34

For the past few weeks we have been looking at many of the covenants or promises that God makes in the Old Testament. Today's reading describes a new covenant. In this new covenant God promises to be our God, even after His people broke the previous covenant.

- Share about a time you broke a promise.
- How did the other person respond?
- What does this new covenant teach you about the character of God?
- How did God fulfill this new covenant?

(See Hebrews 9:15)
