John 20:19-31

Every year, the week after Easter we read the account of Thomas from John 20. This story reminds us just how unbelievable the resurrection of Jesus was. Thomas wanted proof, not just a story. To break through Thomas's doubt, Jesus comes to him and proves that he was alive. After seeing Jesus Thomas confesses, "My Lord and my God!" We all want proof sometimes, and Jesus comes to us as well when we need it.

- Share about a time when you doubted the story of Jesus.
- What could Jesus do to make you never doubt again?
- How does Jesus come to us today to take away our doubt?
