Luke 24:36-49

Last week we heard the story about Thomas who wanted proof that Jesus was alive. Today in our Gospel lesson we see Jesus appearing to his disciples to prove that he had risen. He showed that he was flesh and blood and not an image or a spirit. Jesus then told them that they would be the ones to tell the world about what they had seen and heard, but they would not be going alone. Jesus promised to send them a helper, the Holy Spirit.

- What makes it hard to share the message of Jesus with others?
- How does it change knowing that you do not go out alone to tell others?
- Jesus is on a mission and he invites you to join him. He does not give you a mission to do for him. He is on a mission and invites you to come with him. How does this change your perspective?
