Isaiah 6:1-8

Today is Trinity Sunday. On this day we reflect on the teaching in the Bible that God is three-in-one. There is one God, in three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In our Old Testament reading today the prophet Isaiah gets a peek at heaven and he hears the angels praising the triune God with the phrase, "Holy, Holy, Holy!"

- Why is this a good phrase for us to use today on Trinity Sunday?
- What other words or phrases do we use to talk about the triune God?
 - How does God make us holy?
- What can you do this week to share about the triune God with someone?
