Mark 3:20-35

Today's Gospel reading may have some strange things but in verse 35 Jesus says, "Whoever does what God wants is my brother and sister and mother." Jesus reminds us that all believers are part of the same family. We should care and love for one another, but doing what God wants also includes loving our neighbors, even if they are different than us.

- Who is your neighbor? (See Luke 10:25-37)
- How can you serve your neighbor today?
- Why is it so hard to serve our neighbors in love every day?
- Share about a time someone served you and showed you love.
