Mark 4:35-41

In today's Gospel reading we see the power of Jesus as he calms a storm with just a word. As the wind blew and waves crashed, the disciples were filled with fear. While chaos reigned above deck, Jesus was sleeping below. But in their need, Jesus provided. He brought peace into chaos. He does the same for us.

-Share about a time you were afraid.

-Do you ever feel like Jesus is just below deck in your life, asleep? What makes you feel this way?

-What does Jesus promise to all who follow him? (See John 14:27)

-How do these promises help you get through the storms of life?
