Ephesians 2:11-22

We continue our journey in Paul's letter to the Ephesians today. It is tempting to live in the past, to remember days gone by or to regret some decisions that have been made. It is never good to live in the past. Paul reminds us about this when it comes to our lives in Christ.

- What are some the regrets you have about the past?
- How can living in the past cause problems in the present?
- What is our present reality in Christ? (See verses 14-18)
- What are some of the things that God has prepared you to do in the present?
