Ephesians 3:14-21

Today in our reading from Ephesians, Paul offers a heartfelt prayer. He prays that God would give blessings, strength and power and that love would be the foundation into which we are rooted. These blessings and this foundation form and fashion us to hold onto by faith the mysteries of the love of God.

-Why is a good foundation important? (See Matthew 4:24-29)

-What makes the love of God hard to understand?
-In verses 20 & 21 Paul gives all glory to God for the love shown to us. Use your own words to give praise to God for all he has done. Share what you wrote with someone special or share it on social media to remind others of this great love.
