Ephesians 4:5:1-21

In Ephesians chapter 5 Paul continues talking about what it means to "Live Generously" like we talked about in worship last week. In today's text he reminds us to imitate God but to do so carefully, "placing ourselves under each other's authority out of respect for Christ." (v. 21)

- if imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, how can our imitation give glory to God?
- Share about a time when someone was an example of Christ to you.
- Imitation can sometimes turn into pride. How might this happen?
- How can you humbly and with submission imitate God this week?
