Ephesians 5:22-33

Our text today is one that many find confusing, especially when we look at it with the lens of our own culture and language. There is more than meets the eye here as Paul talks about the idea of submission. In this passage we see a lesson about marriage but it also is a lesson about our relationship with Christ and is connected to our text from last week about submitting to fellow believers. This relationship is a two-way street. There is both love and submission, you can't have one without the other.

-How does seeing the bigger picture of this text help you understand it better?

-How is submission a good thing in regards to our relationship with Christ?

-How can you exercise both love and submission this week in your life?
