Connecting Deeply: To the "Community"

Sharing is one of the first things we learn in school but sharing does not come easy or natural to us. Because of sin we don't always like or even want to share. In our text today Paul tells the Thessalonians that he, and his partners in ministry, were determined to shared not only Jesus but their very lives.

- What does it mean to share life with someone?
- What makes it hard for you to share life with someone?
- What can you do today to begin to share life with someone you may not already know?
