Romans 3:21

Forming Spiritually: Growing in Faith

Our text today reminds us that our righteousness (that is our good standing before God) is not based on the law or what we do but based on something else. That something else is none other than the person and work of Jesus for us!

-If your standing before God is not based on what you do, how does that change what you do?

-Why is growing in faith important?
 -How can you share this idea to someone this week?
