Luke 21:25-36
Advent 1-Hope

The season of Advent is a time of hopeful expectation of the return of Christ even as we prepare to celebrate His first Advent among us at Christmas. Today's Gospel lesson focuses on the expected return and gives some of the signs to look for. This may sound frightening but it is indeed a message of hope. The first candle we light today on the Advent wreath reminds us of this hope that Christ will return.

-Share about a time you felt hopeless. How did things turn out?

-What are some things that give you hope?

-How can hope help get you through hard times?

Words I heard but don't know...
